

Amy Jackson Agrees to 12 Primary Debates In Alexandria Mayoral Race

Alexandria, VA — Today, Vice-Mayor Amy Jackson announced that she will participate in a total of twelve debates and forums before the June 18 Democratic primary. Jackson hopes these debates will inform voters about her plans for the future of Alexandria.

Jackson has agreed to the following debates & forums across Alexandria:

1. March 28 - Federation of Civic Associations
2. April 10 - Del Ray Citizens Association
3. April 17 - Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Inc. & League of Women Voters (LWV)
4. April 18 - Alexandria City High School students at ACHS
5. April 25 - Alexandria NAACP
6. April 27 - Old Town Village/Roundhouse Community
7. May 2 - Tenants and Workers United & Grassroots Alexandria
8. May 7 - Alexandria PTA Council (PTAC) at ACHS
9. May 11 - Nannie Lee Center, Carlyle, Alex Renew communities
10. May 13 - North Ridge Civic Association
11. May 15 - LynnHaven & Hume Civic Associations
12. June 4 - Chamber of Commerce & All Small Business Associations

Vice-Mayor Amy Jackson said, "Public debates and forums are a cornerstone of our democracy and I am genuinely looking forward to participating in twelve of them across the city before the primary to hear the concerns of voters and share my vision for the future of our great city. These upcoming events are a chance to showcase my experience leading on the issues. And I sincerely hope my fellow candidates will be there too, sharing the stage, because that's what democracy is all about."